MISS EDNA KEEVER

Song — "Love for the Lord's House"

SCHOOL

With joy I hear my friends exclaim,
"Come, let us in God's Temple meet;"
Within thy gates, Jerusalem,
Shall ever stand our willing feet.

A city built compact and fair,
Jerus'lem stands, the sacred place
To which the gath'ring tribes repair,
Tribes of Jehovah's chosen race.

'Tis there by His command they meet
To render thanks and pay their vows,
And there is judgment's royal seat,
There are the thrones of David's house.

For sake of friends and kindred dear
My heart's desire is "peace to thee;"
And for the house of God, my pray'r
Shall seek thy good continually.

CHORUS.

Pray that Jerus'lem's peace endure,
For all that love thee God will bless;
Peace dwell within thy walls secure,
And joy within thy palaces.

Psalm 132.

1 Lord, remember David, and all his afflictions:

2 How he swore unto the Lord, and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob;

3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;

4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids,

5 Until I find out a place for the Lord, a habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood.

7 We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool.

8 Arise, O Lord, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.

9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

10 For thy servant David's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed.

11 The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

12 If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne forevermore.

13 For the Lord hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.

14 This is my rest forever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

15 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.

16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

Psalm 87.

1 His foundation is in the holy mountains.

2 The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

3 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God.

4 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me; behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there.

5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the Highest himself shall establish her.

6 The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there.

7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

Bible Song Number 310.

I'll Thee exalt, my God, O King,
Thy name I will adore;
I'll bless thee ev'ry day, and praise
Thy name forevermore.

The Lord is great, much to be praised,
His greatness search exceeds;
Race unto race shall praise Thy works,
And show Thy mighty deeds.

I of Thy glorious majesty
The honor will record;
I'll speak of all Thy mighty works,
Which wondrous are, O Lord.

Cho.—Ev'ry day will I bless Thee;
Ev'ry day will I bless Thee;
And will praise, will praise
Thy name forever and ever.

Song — "Love for God's Word" SCHOOL

God's law is perfect, and converts
The soul in sin that lies:
God's testimony is most sure,
And makes the simple wise.

The statutes of the Lord are right,
And do rejoice the heart;
The Lord's command is pure, and doth
Light to the eyes impart.

Unspotted is the fear of God,
And ever doth endure;
The judgments of the Lord are truth,
And righteousness most pure.

They more than gold, yea, much fine gold,
To be desired are;
Than honey, honey from the comb
That droppeth, sweeter far.

Moreover, they Thy servant warn
How he his life should frame:
A great reward provided is
For them that keep the same.

Cho.—O how love I Thy law! O how love I Thy law!
It is my meditation all the day.
O how love I Thy law! O how love I Thy law!
It is my meditation all the day. (all the day.)

Doxology

(Congregation Standing)

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make:
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with joy,
Within His courts His praise proclaim;
Let thankful songs your tongues employ,
O bless and magnify His name.

Because the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

PASTOR AND CONGREGATION

84th Psalm.

1 How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found a house and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.

6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools.

7 They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

8 O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12 O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

The Lord's Prayer.

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come: thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever, Amen."

Psalm 116

(Congregation Standing)

What fit return, Lord, can I make
For all thy gifts on me bestowed?
The cup of blessing I will take,
And call upon the name of God.

With sacrifice of thanks I'll go,
And on Jehovah's name will call;
Will pay to God the vows I owe,
In presence of his people all.

Before God's people I'll appear,
And pay my vows there with delight;
The death of saints to God is dear,
Most precious in Jehovah's sight.

Yea, I will pay my vows to God
In midst of thee, Jerusalem.
Within the courts of God's abode,
Praise ye, Jehovah, praise his name.

To thee in praise, I'll lift my song,

Where those that fear Jehovah bow,
I will perform my sacred vow.

The meek shall eat till satisfied,
The food thy liberal hands provide.
Who seek the Lord, shall him adore;
Your heart shall live forevermore.

Earth's utmost bounds shall hear and turn
All tribes and realms thy worship learn;
For God the Lord all empire owns,
And rules above all earthly thrones.

Scripture

REV. N. E. WADE

(II Chronicles, 6th: 1-2, 18-21, 40-42 7th: 1-4.
Hebrews, 10th: 19-26)

Then said Solomon, The Lord hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. ¶ But I have built a house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling forever. ¶ But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can not contain thee; how much less this house which I have built! ¶ Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee: ¶ That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth toward this place. ¶ Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant; and of thy people Israel, which they shall make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive. ¶ Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place. ¶ Now therefore arise, O Lord God, into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness. ¶ O Lord God, turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant. ¶ Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the house. ¶ And the priests could not enter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lord's house. ¶ And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth forever. ¶ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lord.

¶ Having, therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, ¶ By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh, ¶ And having a high priest over the house of God; ¶ Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. ¶ Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised; ¶ And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: ¶ Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. ¶ For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins.

Responsive Reading — Psalm 122 . . . THE PASTOR

I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together :

Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say,
Peace be within thee.

Because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek thy good.

Song—Bible Song No. 95

O daughter, take good heed,
Incline and give good ear ;
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
And father's house most dear.
Thy beauty to the King
Shall then delightful be,
And do thou humbly worship Him,
Because thy Lord is He.

She cometh to the King
In robes with needle wrought
The virgins that do follow her
Shall unto thee be brought
With gladness and with joy,
Thou all of them shalt bring,
And they together enter shall
The palace of the King.

CHORUS.

The daughter then of Tyre
There with a gift shall be,
And all the wealthy of the land
Shall make their suit to thee.
The daughter of the King
All glorious is within,
And with embroideries of gold
Her garments wrought have been.

With gladness and with joy
Thou all of them shalt bring,
And they together enter shall
The palace of the King,
The palace of the King,
The palace of the King,
And they together enter shall
The palace of the King.

Prevail from day to day,
But as for our transgressions,
Them shalt thou purge away.

Blest he whom thou hast chosen,

The courts of God Most High.

We shall in rich abundance
Be satisfied with grace,

(CHIME MADE AND INSTALLED BY MENEELY BELL COMPANY, TROY NEW YORK)

Description of the Chime

The Chime consists of ten bells, of the following weights and tones: One—2,035 pounds, F; Two—1,568 pounds, G; Three—1,010 pounds, A; Four—826 pounds, B-flat; Five—582 pounds, C; Six—420 pounds, D; Seven—375 pounds, E-flat; Eight—324 pounds, E natural; Nine—318 pounds, F; Ten—288 pounds, G. Total weight of bells, 7,746 pounds. The framework weighs, in addition, about 4,500 pounds.

Musicians will note that the chime consists of the straight scale of "F," and with the addition of the "E-flat" or "Flat-seventh" bell, tunes in two different keys may be played.

The bells are made of pure bell-metal, which consists of 78% of copper and 22% of tin. Much is said of the quantity of silver in various bells as being responsible for their peculiar sweetness of tone. This is a myth, for experiments have shown that when silver is added to the regular composition of bells, the effect is decidedly injurious to the tone of the finished bell.

The chime is operated by a single player, who stands before the ring-case, consisting of a set of ten levers, one for each bell and connected with the tongue of same by wooden trackers, chains, etc. By pressing downward on these levers the bell clappers are brought in contact with the bells, causing them to sound. Experienced operators can adjust the force of the blow so that the bells can be played loud or soft or with proper expression—a thing which no mechanical chime-ringing apparatus is able to do.

Description of Organ

This beautiful Organ is in reality FIVE ORGANS IN ONE: Great, Swell, Choir, Echo and Pedal.

Speaking Stops	41
Cathedral Chimes	1
Couplers, etc.	22
Accessories	9
Combinations (Pistons)	20
Pedal Combinations, etc.	9
Grand Crescendo	1

Total of Stops, etc. . . . 103

Electric Motors of Six-Horse Power.

The Main Organ is back of the pulpit, divided, with space in the center for a chorus choir, detached console, etc., and comprises four beautiful facades of Gothic tracery and groups of large speaking pipes, all finished in gold and mahogany.

The unique Cathedral Chimes are enclosed in a swell box and are operated by a special electro-pneumatic device of the builders.

The Echo Organ is placed high in a tower in the opposite end of the church, and from the character of its stops, their artistic treatment, and its peculiar location, this unusual feature will prove very beautiful and useful.

The instrument as a whole is a type of the highest and best system of modern organ-building art, with its wonderful possibilities.

Designed by PROF. W. H. DONLEY, of Indianapolis.

Built by HOOK, HASTINGS & CO., Boston.

The Organ Case designed by BADGLEY & NICKLAS, Cleveland.

Built by A. H. ANDREWS CO., Chicago.

Description of Church

The general dimensions of the building are 90 x 120 feet, the general style being a modification of the English Gothic cathedral. The massive tower, located at the corner, forms a central feature in the perspective. The exterior walls are all of finely tooled Bedford stone with elaborately moulded and carved trimmings of the same stone. The roof is covered with corrugated red tile, and all cornices, gutters and conductors are of copper. The interior walls and ceilings are of hard plaster, sand-finished on metal lath, the ceiling being groin-arched and decorated in stucco fan-tracery and details. The interior wood finish and furnishings are of mahogany and birch with finely carved details.

The interior decorations and art glass are from the famous Tiffany studios. The spacious chancel contains the choir, the divided organ and the pulpit platform. The seats are in circular form on a slightly bowled floor, and a gracefully curved balcony affords as desirable sittings as those on the main floor.

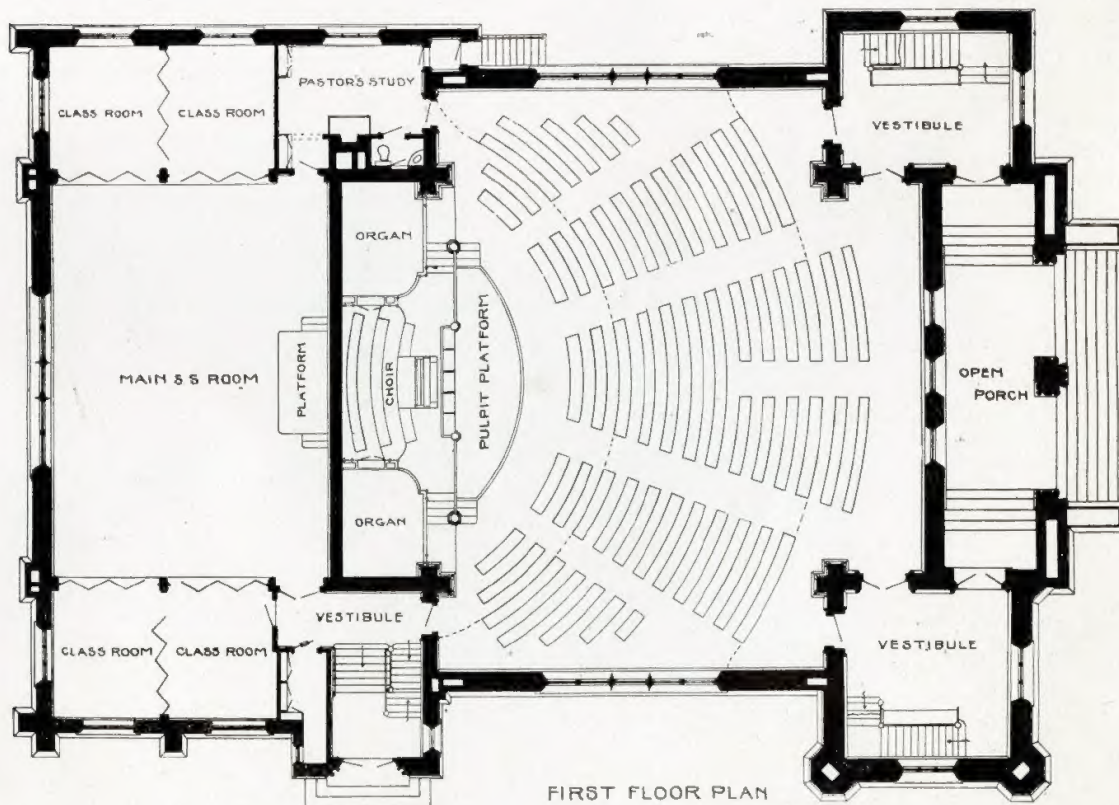

The Sabbath School department, which is quite separate from the church, consists of a large central room, with class-rooms in two tiers on each side, all arranged to open together by folding and sliding sash doors, for general exercises. A pastor's study is located on the main floor, fitted up with book cases, mantel and toilet room, and opening on both the church and Sabbath School.

The basement is high, dry and well ventilated and contains a large dining and entertainment hall with stage, parlor, kindergarten room, kitchen, fully equipped toilet rooms, boiler room and coal room.

The building is lighted by both gas and electricity, artistically disposed and heated with steam, with a thorough system of gravity ventilation, accelerated by rarefaction.

CAPACITY

The church contains on main floor and in choir	400 sittings
The balcony	150 "
Total in church	550
Main Sabbath School room	200 sittings
Class rooms	160 "
Kindergarten room	140 "
Total in Sabbath School	500

Windows

The Windows throughout the church are constructed of Tiffany Favrile Glass, in a purely Gothic design, which harmonizes with the architecture of the building. In one of the large windows in the auditorium are the figures of our Lord and the four Evangelists, while in the great Sabbath School window is depicted that famous scene in the life of Christ where He is found by His mother, while conversing with the doctors in the temple. This is an extremely appropriate design for a Sabbath School window and will always be an object lesson to the youth of the church. These figure subjects are not taken, as is found in many churches throughout the country, from some of the works of the old masters, which were intended for paintings and not for glass, but were the original productions of the artists of the Tiffany Studios, and were especially designed for works of art in glass alone.

Decoration

The Decoration of the entire interior is also the work of Tiffany Studios. The color scheme of the various rooms is conspicuous for its extreme simplicity, the object of which is to obtain absolutely correct harmony of color without resorting to lavish decoration. We may here state that the mottled effect on the wall is a new departure in the art of decoration, and is original with the Tiffany Studios. The effect is soothing and pleasing to the eye, and is not obtainable from the ordinary method of opaquely painted walls. The whole scheme of color effects, intermingled with gold traceries, is artistic in every detail. Great skill has been displayed in the toning of all colors, making them complementary to the rich green, gold and blue of the windows and the rich mahogany of the woodwork.

Furniture

The Furniture in the Sabbath School rooms, parlor, study and pulpit is all mahogany and made by the A. H. Andrews Company, of Chicago. The building stone is commonly known as Bedford stone, and furnished by J. Y. Thompson, of Bloomington, Ind.

The Entertainment Hall is furnished with mahogany folding-chairs, made by the Standard Manufacturing Company, Cambridge City, Ind.

Pianos

Two Pianos—one a Concert Grand, in the Entertainment Hall, and a Minum Grand, in the Sabbath School—were made and furnished by The Starr Piano Company, of Richmond, Ind.

Chandeliers

The Chandeliers, including all the lighting fixtures, bronze pedestals and hanging entrance lights, also all brass work, were made by the Chandelier & Art Brass Works of this city, and each piece was especially designed by them, comprising the architectural features of the building. The finish is solid bronze in the outside fixtures and what is known as verde antique on the chandeliers.

Carpets

All the floors are covered with Royal Wilton Carpets, of modest patterns and colors, in pleasing harmony with decorations and wood furnishings.

Other Equipment

The Song Books, Bibles, Maps, Stereopticon, Queensware, Kitchen Furnishings—in fact, everything—is new and elegant and is included in the gift of the church.
